I1 - Contract Checklist

Please use the following checklist to ensure that you submit all necessary materials alongside the completed text of your manuscript.

1. Have you filled in the number of pages and submission date slots and returned the signed contract for your title?
2. If there are any materials whose publishing and selling rights you do not hold, have you included all copyright clearance statements? Illustrations, quotations which do not comply with 'fair use', photographs, articles that have been published elsewhere, sound recordings or films included in any supplementary CD or DVD, are all examples of copyrighted material whose copyright you may not own. See I5-Rights and Permissions and F5-Rights and Permissions.
3. If there are contributors who have not signed the main contract (for example, if this is an edited volume), have you included the signed contributor contract? See C2-Contributor Agreement.
4. If you have a photograph you would like to use for the dust jacket or cover, have you included it? If so, you need to also include
 - a. Any copyright clearance
 - b. A brief caption or description that can be used on the back coverSee document I6-Images for your cover.pdf
5. Have you followed the submission guidelines? Where this has not been possible, have you made this clear for the typesetter in a separate instruction sheet? See I7-Submission Guidelines
6. Have you entered book review addresses by emailing:
admin@cambridgescholars.com?
7. Have you entered contributor contact information - see the form C2-Contributor Agreement?
8. Have you included a blurb and author biography which we can use for marketing purposes and on the back cover of your book? See I8-Initial Data Request.
9. Have you included recommendations?
10. Have you included the subject and BIC classifications which most appropriately describe the topic of your book? See L2-BICs.
