

A Guide to Global Learning at Small Institutions: Diverse Models and Creative Solutions

Collection Editor: Jann Purdy and Erica A. Andree

Description

Small liberal arts colleges face unique challenges integrating international curricula and global learning. However, those same challenges, including limitations on staff, resources, and administration, can often inspire creative solutions. This volume offers models for diverse, effective approaches to providing global learning curriculum and instruction to undergraduates at small institutions.

About the Editor

Erica Andree is director of the Center for Languages and International Collaboration at Pacific University, Oregon. She oversees development and implementation of the Global Scholars Program, an emerging effort to internationalize the undergraduate curriculum and expand and diversify study abroad to provide equitable access to the benefits of global learning.

Jann Purdy is Professor of French and Chair of International Studies at Pacific University, Oregon. She edited Language Beyond the Classroom (Cambridge Scholars, 2018) on service-learning for language programs. Dr. Purdy created at Pacific a program in intercultural communication and co-developed the Global Scholars Program, a global-learning curriculum.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
