

A Practical Miscellany for Busy Dental Professionals

Collection Editor: Janine Brooks

Description

The collection includes a broad range of topics from practical clinical dental applications to the latest in mindfulness and neuro-science to ethical considerations, practical communication and ideas on leadership and professionalism. This would fit well with the 4 aspects of development required by the General Dental Council: clinical; communication; professionalism and leadership/management.

About the Editor

Janine Brooks graduated from Birmingham Dental School in the early 80's and currently enjoys a portfolio of work with the overarching themes of education, mentoring and coaching. She runs three coaching and training businesses and specialises in mentoring dentists experiencing difficulties. Her doctorate is in medical ethics. She was honoured with an MBE in 2007.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
