

Analysing Health Discourse in Digital Environments

Collection Editor: Anna Plastina

Description

This collection seeks to keep pace of the changing nature of health discourse in different digital environments. It intends to offer sustained discourse analyses of a number of interactions generated through the affordances and constraints of these new social contexts, which are affecting health communication in subtle and profound ways.

About the Editor

Anna Franca Plastina is Associate Professor of English Language and Linguistics. Her research focus is mainly on specialised discourse in computer-mediated, LSP and multilingual contexts with interests in genre, multimodal, psycholinguistic, and corpus-assisted critical discourse analyses. She has published extensively in these research areas at both national and international levels

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines;>

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.

You can view open projects at the link below:

<https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/guest-edited-collections>

