

Conceptualism, Alienation and Pain: Understanding the Bases of Prejudices

Collection Editor: Simon Young

Description

The world continues to suffer the scourge of prejudice. On the basis of such thinking, leaders are allowed to bring suffering both to the objects of prejudice as well as those they claim to represent. The question to be address in this volume is: What is the basis of prejudice?

About the Editor

Simon Young received a PhD from the University of Exeter based on the works of Heidegger. Published a book on a Heideggerian understanding of language, A Walk in the Landscape of Language. More recent research activities have been around totalitarianism, specifically Nazism and Fascism

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
