

Evidence-Based Organizational Practices for Diversity, Inclusion, Belonging and Equity

Collection Editor: Ludmila N. Praslova

Description

This evidence-based and practical book presents approaches for designing organizations to support inclusion, belonging, equity and professional development of employees who differ in cultural, national and economic backgrounds, health status, cognitive style, age, and other characteristics. Such environments result in exceptional productivity and creativity by maximizing the talents of all.

About the Editor

Ludmila N. Praslova, Ph.D. is a Professor and the founding Director of Graduate Program in Industrial-Organizational Psychology at Vanguard University of Southern California. Prior to her academic career, she led successful Intercultural Relations programs in global organizations. Her areas of expertise include intercultural relations, inclusion, diversity, justice and organizational culture.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.

You can view open projects at the link below:

<https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/guest-edited-collections>

