

Feeling Cognition: Correlations of Linguistics and Affect

Collection Editor: Zuzana Luckay Mihalcinova

Description

The collection would encompass chapters from (applied) linguistics with a focus on the role of affect. The aim of the collection is to highlight the mutual influence of affect on language use and 'linguistic behaviour' in e.g. ecolinguistics, critical discourse analyses, cognitive linguistics, psycholinguistics, semantics, pragmatics and their (inter)personal, social and ethical dimensions.

About the Editor

Mgr. Zuzana Luckay Mihalcinova, PhD. is a linguist, literary theorist, university teacher and researcher. She has been researching the concept of human dignity and its many facets for over 15 years. Her current research focus is on the role of emotions (affect) on self-perception and value assignment.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
