

Horse Welfare Guidelines to International Horse Racing Regulation

Collection Editors: Brian Stewart and Kenneth Lam

Description

The veterinary regulation of horse racing is critical to ensure the sustainability of the racing industry and to protect the safety and welfare of the racehorse. The guidelines aim to assist Regulatory Veterinarians in performing to a high standard and to raise the profile of Veterinarians in the racing industry.

About the Editors

Brian Stewart and Kenneth Lam have been extensively involved in the International Group of Specialist Racing Veterinarians (IGSRV) on international horse movement to facilitate international races, veterinary regulation, doping control, infectious equine disease surveillance and epidemiological studies of training and racing injuries and welfare for over 25 years.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
