

Human Capital Incubator: The Household

Collection Editor: Sandra Velez

---

Description

This book will be amplifying how modern families develop their socioeconomics needs through their young and adult human capital performance. It also pretend goes over the most frequent family issues that limit their functionality as a socioeconomic organization to achieve their daily basics that permits them reach their basic needs.

About the Editor

Sandra Velez Candelario is a PhD in Industrial/Organizational Psychology with a sub-specialization in family organizational psychology. Her PhD research has been published in 2016 (2009 defended). She has two chapter's books and many scientific journal publications. Today she works as a Family Organizational Psychology Advisor/Consultant, building productive and functional families.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.

You can view open projects at the link below:

<https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/guest-edited-collections>

