

Human Core Identity: Approaches and Implications

Collection Editor: Vitor Rodrigues

Description

This collection will include chapters, and/or books, on the most important defining characteristics of the Human being from a scientific and philosophic point of view. Such characteristics include: self-referential consciousness, identity and personality, mind and cognition, ethics, aesthetics, and love. Several volumes could be born out of them.

About the Editor

Vitor Rodrigues, PhD in Psychology, was a University teacher for 17 years and a past President of the European Transpersonal Association. He currently works as a Psychotherapist, Writer and lecturer along with trainer in private practice both in Portugal and other countries.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
