

Innovative Learning Environments

Collection Editor: David Prescott

---

Description

The OECD project Innovative Learning Environments provides material to help educators deal with the scale of change in our world. This means rethinking what is taught, how it is taught and how learning is assessed. The book will focus on the experiences of educators and young professionals and the OECD “building blocks” for promoting innovative learning environments.

About the Editor

Dr David Prescott is a Director of Olive Branch Enterprises (OBE Inc.), a consultancy established in New Zealand. He has edited three books for Cambridge Scholars Publishing in the fields of language education, educational action research and teamwork and communication for engineers. He contributed a chapter on situated learning and blended course delivery for the Routledge publication Transforming Education in the Gulf Region in 2016.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, ‘ready-to-go’ form.
