

International Perspectives on Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development

Collection Editor: Dr Simon Stephens

Description

This book provides an excellent starting point for readers who wish to gain a greater appreciation of the range of issues, barriers and challenges that entrepreneurs encounter. Each individual chapter presents a unique case study style example of entrepreneurship in practice. The book serves as a compendium for educators and students who wish to embrace an entrepreneurial mindset.

About the Editor

Simon Stephens is a Senior Lecturer at the LYIT School of Business. His research explores the economics of entrepreneurship and small business. His research has been widely published and he is the Chair of the Entrepreneurship and Small Business track for the Irish Academy of Management.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
