

Investigating Economic Crimes and Criminals: Techniques, Methodological Issues and Psychology

Collection Editor: Dr. Yannis Markovits

Description

A edited collection of works on economic crimes and economic criminals focusing on the areas of techniques (how to disclose and fight economic crimes), of analysing methodological issues regarding measurement of economic crime and criminal activity, and finally, contributions relevant to the psychology and behaviour of economic criminals (e.g., the analysis of the dark triad and of criminal triangle).

About the Editor

Dr. Yannis Markovits has a PhD on organizational/work psychology and is director of an economic crime investigation/auditing organization in Greece. Yannis has published "The committed workforce: Evidence from the field", Cambridge Scholars Publishing. He has published numerous papers/articles on economic crimes, tax evasion, corruption and fraud.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
