

Neoliberal Globalisation

Collection Editor: Paul C. Mocombe

Description

Neoliberal Globalization examines the ideological and practical emergence and constitution of the neoliberal capitalist world-system under American hegemony.

About the Editor

Paul C. Mocombe is a Haitian philosopher and sociologist interested in the application of his theory of phenomenological structuralism to understanding contemporary issues such as climate change, globalization, and consciousness constitution. He is an Assistant Professor of philosophy and sociology and president of the Mocombeian Foundation, inc.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
