

Personalized Experience of the World in Information Age

Collection Editor: Aleksandra Binicewicz

Description

From the advent of the social media phenomena, through to the transformation of Web 2.0 into a personalized experience of the Web. The aim is to explore these topics as well as to focus on a search of a remedy to the most burning issues linked with the notion of privacy.

About the Editor

Aleksandra Binicewicz, PhD, is a cultural expert fascinated in the development of new technologies and their influence on the shape of social realities in Western world. Her research interests include cultural history, as well as notions of privacy in the Information Age.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
