

Philosophy, Psychology and Place

Collection Editor: Matthew Gildersleeve

Description

This book will present different views on the relationship between philosophy, psychology and place. It will showcase articles from international scholars that address a variety of theoretical and practical issues in contemporary philosophy and psychology by connecting them to place. The book will show the importance of place and expands the literature existing on this subject to new areas.

About the Editor

Matthew Gildersleeve Ph.D., works at the University of Queensland in Brisbane, Australia. His past research has focused on place and making connections between the philosophies of Heidegger, Nietzsche, Jung, Freud, Lacan, Hegel, and Žižek. He has published articles in the Journal of Analytical Psychology, European Psychiatry, the Humanistic Psychologist, Cosmos and History and Philosophy Now.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
