

Reactualizing Emancipation: New Perspectives in Contemporary Ethics

Collection Editor: Silvia Pierosara

Description

The volume entitled Reactualizing Emancipation: New Perspectives in Contemporary Ethics aims to reconstruct and reconsider the relevance of emancipation from an ethical standpoint. The goal of the authors is to explore the potential of emancipation in coping with many contemporary ethical challenges, both from an individual and a public viewpoint.

About the Editor

Silvia Pierosara, PhD in Philosophy and Theory of the Human Sciences, is researcher in Moral Philosophy at the University of Macerata. Her fields of interest are narrative ethics, the theory of recognition, the relational paradigm applied to autonomy, and critical theory.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
