

Second Language Teaching in the Digital Era: Perspectives and Practices

Collection Editor: Elena Chaika

Description

This book provides a perspective on second language teaching in the digital era. The teaching process is considered from two angles: the theoretical highlights the approaches, principles and techniques of teaching a second language to the generation of digital learners, and the practical presents the case studies of applying innovative technologies and evaluating their efficiency in the second language teaching.

About the Editor

Elena Chaika has been working for Voronezh State university (VSU) since 1984 when she graduated from VSU with the qualification of an interpreter/translator and teacher of the English language and literature. In 2002 she completed her PhD in Pedagogy. Currently she delivers lectures and practical classes on a number of disciplines to bachelor and master students.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.

You can view open projects at the link below:

<https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/guest-edited-collections>

