

Seminal Studies in Linguistics and Translation

Collection Editor: Amr El-Zawawy

Description

The present collection of articles is a compendium of the latest developments in linguistics and translation studies. It addresses many salient issues in both fields with considerable depth and lucidity, allowing fresh views to underpin, or even challenge, existing ones. The contributors are all distinguished scholars with strong academic backgrounds.

About the Editor

Amr M. El-Zawawy is Associate Professor of Linguistics and Translation in the Department of English, Faculty of Education, Alexandria University, Egypt. He obtained his MA and Ph.D. from the Department of English Language and Literature, Faculty of Arts, Alexandria University, Egypt, between 2005 and 2013. He has also practiced written and simultaneous translation for more than eight years now. He has contributed important articles to different scholarly journals, and is interested in simultaneous interpretation, cognitive linguistics, literary translation, contrastive linguistics, syntax and semantics. His recent books include Studies in Contrastive Linguistics and Stylistics, published in USA, Nova Science Publishers, 2016, and Exploring the Cognitive Processes of Simultaneous Interpreting, Lexington, 2019.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
