

The Big Book of Logistics and Supply Chain Management

Collection Editor: Martin Straka

Description

The big book of logistics and supply chain management represents an overall view of the area. The intention is to provide a comprehensive view and all available information for everyone interested in the subject area. The book represents an encyclopaedic publication that deals with everything related to logistics and supply chain management.

About the Editor

Martin Straka is an Associate Professor at the Institute of Logistics and Transport, Technical University of Košice. He finished engineering study in 1996. PhD study finished in 2005 and habilitation finished in 2008. His research interests are in the area of distribution logistics, simulation, production logistics and information logistics.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.

You can view open projects at the link below:

<https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/guest-edited-collections>

