

The Integration of Systems of Innovation in Africa

Collection Editor: Mario Scerri

Description

This volume explores the process of economic integration in Africa from a broad system of innovation approach. From this political economy perspective, it examines various aspects of the transition from national to regional, and eventually continental systems within the context of Agenda 2063 of the African Union.

About the Editor

Mario Scerri is the author of The Evolution of the South African System of Innovation since 1916 (Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2009), the editor of The Emergence of Systems of Innovation in South(ern) Africa: Long Histories and Contemporary Debates (MISTRA, 2016), the co-editor of three books on the national systems of innovation in the BRICS (Routledge, 2013 and 2014) and Measuring Innovation in OECD and non-OECD Countries (HSRC Press, 2006).

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
