

The Metamorphoses of Historical Past: Memory, Representation and Facts

Collection Editor: Vinicio Busacchi

Description

Historical facts are not objects. The 'historical-real' is constitutively representational because it is a process. The question of what is a given truth in history becomes the dilemma of creating a representative reconstruction of the process of (past) events that are close to the 'real' events as they are given in that specific time.

About the Editor

Vinicio Busacchi is Associate Professor of Theoretical Philosophy and recently obtained the national scientific qualification for the role of Full Professor. His published books include Pour une herméneutique critique (2013); The Recognition Principle (2015); Habermas and Ricoeur's Depth Hermeneutics (2016); Philosophy & Human Revolution (2018); Action, Intersubjectivity and Narrative Identity (2019).

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
