

The Metaphysics of Religion

Collection Editor: Peter Loftson

Description

This is a collection of essays on the theme of the metaphysics of religion. The several papers collected here offer different theoretical schemes for understanding the universe as a theistic one. Some correspond to traditional religious theories others are novel.

About the Editor

Peter Loftson received his BA from York University and his MA and PhD from the University of Pittsburgh. He taught at the University of Saskatchewan and subsequently at the University of Guelph, where he was Department Chair from 1998 to 2003. He served as co-editor of Dialogue and Hume studies, each for five-year spans. He is the author of five books and the editor of three, in addition to having published a number of articles focusing on classics and philosophy. He retired in 2014.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
