

The Power of Greenness: Poe, Hawthorne, Melville and American Environmentalist Discourse

Collection Editor: Sławomir Studniarz

Description

The Power of Greenness proposes to reexamine the fiction of Poe, Hawthorne, Melville with a view to establishing their contribution to what is called "American environmentalist discourse," the literature that articulates a position on the natural world and man's relation to it. Also, their connections with the early ecological thought will be taken into account.

About the Editor

Sławomir Studniarz, Associate Professor, is a Polish scholar, at the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, where he gives lectures in American literature and conducts B.A. and M.A. seminars. He has published extensively on Edgar Allan Poe and many other American writers. He has also published several articles on Samuel Beckett.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines;>

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
