

Tourism in Times of Uncertainty

Collection Editor: Maximiliano Korstanje

Description

We are living in days where uncertainty prevails. In a hyper-mobile society where information revolves around, tourism is facing one of its most terrible crises in its history after the WWII end. Recently, a virus outbreak emerged in China (COVID19) has placed the tourism industry in jeopardy. The act of travelling needs of secure conditions to prosper, when this does not happen the industry enters in crisis. However, tourism showed to be a resilient industry which is very hard to stop. The present book deals with chapters that explore the interplay of tourism, resiliency, mobilities and anxiety, in a moment where uncertainty prevails.
