

Voice of Emigrants: Media of Political Emigrants from Central and Eastern Europe after 1945

Collection Editor: Arkadiusz Indraszczyk

Description

The aim of the work is to analyze the media used by political emigrants from Central Europe after 1945. We want to answer the following questions: What types of media did emigrants have? What they preached in them? Were the media used more to justify their activities towards Western societies or towards their own emigrant communities and nations behind the Iron Curtain?

About the Editor

Arkadiusz Indraszczyk, historian and political scientist, habilitated doctor, professor at the Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities, senior curator at the Museum of the History of the Polish People's Movement in Warsaw, conducts research on political emigration from Central Europe after 1945, political parties, European integration and collective security systems in Europe.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines;>

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
