

Wittgenstein's Tractatus Logico-Philosophicus

Collection Editor: Andreas Georgallides

Description

The collection will consist of chapters related to Wittgenstein's early work, in particular to Tractatus, which examines the relation between language and the world, and which makes the distinction between saying and showing. These chapters will be related to logic, ontology, metaphysics and the epistemological and moral aspect of Tractatus.

About the Editor

Andreas Georgallides studied Pedagogical Sciences, History and Archaeology, and Philosophy. He conducted his postgraduate studies in Philosophy at the University of Paris I – Panthéon – Sorbonne, before receiving his PhD in Philosophy from the University of Sussex, UK. He has translated Tractatus Logico-Philosophicus in Greek and has published seven poetry collections.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
