

Women in Prisons

Collection Editor: Dr. Liz Gordon

Description

This international collection will focus on policies and practices in women's imprisonment internationally. The rise of numbers of women in prison round the world raise fundamental questions about why so many women are in prison and what are the implications of this trend. Effects on children and families will be examined.

About the Editor

Liz Gordon has a background in Education but more recently has been working in Law and Justice fields, and social and community policy. She is a Board member of INCCIP, the International Coalition for the Children of Incarcerated parents. She has a long-term interest in women prisoners.

Submission Requirements

All chapters submitted should conform to the grammar and formatting guidelines provided by Cambridge Scholars Publishing, which can be viewed here: <https://www.cambridgescholars.com/pages/forms-guidelines>;

Unless agreed with the Editor prior to submission, referencing should be in Chicago;

Any work submitted for publication should be free of copyright restrictions and a statement should be submitted in support of this;

Contributions should be scholarly rather than anecdotal or unverifiable;

Contributions must be wholly in English, excluding footnotes, appendices and short extracts for translation;

While we will perform pre-press evaluations on the collection, we do not provide full proofreading services, so we ask that works are submitted to us in their final, 'ready-to-go' form.
