

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword .....	x
Jay Gary
Introduction .....	xii
Thomas Mengel
I. Development of Leadership Theory and Models - Lessons from the Past, Models for the Future?
The Evolution of Leadership Theories and Possible New Directions .....	2
Timothy E. Dolan
Towards a Leadership Metamodel: Exploring Over 2000 Years of Leadership Theory Evolution.....	32
Christian Couturier & Thomas Mengel
Surviving the Great Recession of 2008: How One Investment Firm Overcame the Crisis that Would Define a Decade .....	53
Steven M. Walker
II. “Equalizing” Leadership – The “Value Shift” in Current Approaches of Leadership for the Future
Values-Oriented Leadership - Discovering Meaning, Exploring Options, Realizing Values .....	68
Thomas Mengel
Mindful Leadership: Transform Your Self, Organization, and Society....	87
Charlene D’Amore
Networked Leadership: The Coming of Age of a Feminist Lens for Leadership Development .....	111
Carol Nemeroff & Elizabeth Fisher Turesky

The Need for an Epistemological and Cultural Turn in Leadership Studies: From a Eurocentric and Monocultural Conceptualization towards a Global and Intercultural Approach .....	133
Antonio Jimenez-Luque
Discerning the Past to Lead the Future: Social Justice as a Roadmap for Higher Education Change & Transformation .....	148
Shelbee Nguyen Voges
III. Leadership in the Future - Insights from Futures-Studies and Foresight
Anticipatory Leadership: An Invitation to be More Creative and Resilient.....	170
Mattia Vettorello & James Burke
From Earth to Mars and Back – Exploring Leadership Perspectives for the Future .....	192
Thomas Mengel
The Six Pillars of Leadership Future Intelligence: A Novel Framework for Developing Future-Ready Enhanced Leadership.....	217
Tyler Mongan & Kevin Reddy
An Existential Framework for the Future of Decision-Making in Leadership .....	233
Roger Spitz & Rauli Nykaenen
Organisational Adaptation for Artificial Intelligence Futures: Key Principles for Leaders from the Futurists Perspective .....	266
Elissa Farrow
Mastery over “the Unexpected” via Knowledge-driven Leadership .....	290
Tom Meylan
Leadership: Foresight for Small Businesses .....	311
Verne Wheelwright
Values and Foresight-Infused Governance: A Practical Guide for Directors .....	326
Jan Klakurka & Candice Chow

Leadership for the Future: Lessons from the Past,
Current Approaches, and Future Insights

ix

Exploring Meaningful Futures Together – An Integrative Approach to Futures and Values-Oriented in Theory and Practice.....	351
Thomas Mengel
Contributors.....	367

CONTRIBUTORS

James Burke: Founder and Foresight and Solutions Navigator at DeepDive Foresight. He leads innovative studies of the future, emphasizing ways that early-warning signals, trends, and implications could bring awareness of coming surprises to clients before they are surprised. His current research focuses on the roles anticipatory foresight, design, and complexity can play in personal and organizational transformation. Jim learned over his decades of experience that paying attention, asking questions, and listening were key to seeing potential futures. His undergraduate degree is in History and he has masters' degrees in Public Administration and Science and Technology Studies.

Candice C.W. Chow, D.B.A.: Assistant Professor of Strategic Management at DeGroote School of Business, McMaster University. Candice is also the Managing Director of Elevae Strategic Advisory - a values-based advisory firm that promotes a holistic approach to strategic management including values-infused strategic foresight competence and values-based corporate governance. Candice possesses over 25 years of senior management experience at different national and international organizations, with her last position serving as the senior director of corporate strategy and transformation at Purolator Inc, Canada. Candice currently serves on the board of a non-profit organization: Women Helping Empower Women (WHEW), as well as a member of the Impact Cabinet for United Way Halton and Hamilton. Candice's research interest lies in the intersection of strategic leadership, corporate responsibility and values. Candice holds an MBA from Ivey Business School and the Chartered Financial Analysis (CFA) designation.

Christian Couturier, Ph.D.: Leadership Advisor and Entrepreneur, Canada. An experienced senior executive in both public and private sector spanning multiple industries with a passion for helping others succeed. Christian holds graduate degrees in business, management information systems, and interdisciplinary studies (computer science, management, and philosophy), including a Ph.D. in Interdisciplinary Studies (UNB) and an MBA Research in Management Information Systems from Université du Québec à Montréal.

Charlene F. D'Amore, Ph.D.: Dr. D'Amore earned her Ph.D. in Administration and Leadership Studies from the Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2019. Her research interests include reducing societal stigma and increasing the practices of spiritual development and mindful leadership in the world.

Timothy E. Dolan, Ph.D.: Principal at Policy Foresight, a long-term policy analysis and strategy consultancy, based in Ashland, Oregon, United States. He has formerly directed graduate management programs at Texas A&M International University, Southern Oregon University and the University of Texas at Tyler. He serves as board president on the Hawaii International HOPE Foundation, and is on the editorial board of the Journal of Futures Studies and World Futures Review. He is also a member in good standing with the Association of Professional Futurists.

Elissa Farrow, Ph.D. cand.: Elissa Farrow holds a Masters in Social Welfare Administration and Planning from the University of Queensland and launched 'About Your Transition' in 2009 with the goal of improving organisational performance through the successful design, implementation and embedding of complex change. In 2018, Elissa commenced her doctoral studies through the University of the Sunshine Coast (expected year of completion: 2021). Her published research is exploring organizational adaptation to the evolving field of artificial intelligence using qualitative and participatory research methodologies.

Elizabeth Fisher Turesky, Ph.D.: Professor of Leadership and Organizational Studies at the University of Southern Maine, United States, where she teaches both graduate and undergraduate courses. Her teaching and scholarship are rooted in experiential learning principles with an abiding commitment to creating inclusive, nurturing learning environments. The focus of her research is on the nexus of experiential learning, gender and leadership development and organizational change. She holds degrees in psychology and Public Administration and a doctorate in Organizational Behavior from Case Western Reserve University's, the Weatherhead School of Management.

Jay Gary, Ph.D.: Assistant Dean of Online Programs and Associate Professor of Leadership at Oral Roberts University. As a professional futurist, he was a founding member of the Association of Professional Futurists (APF; 2002), serves as member of their board, and recently completed his two-year term as Chair of the Board. Dr. Gary's own research has focused on defining credentials and professional development pathways for futurists, entrepreneurs and innovators. He holds a Ph.D. in organizational leadership from Regent University.

Antonio Jimenez-Luque, Ph.D.: Assistant Professor at the University of San Diego, School of Leadership and Education Sciences. His PhD is in Leadership Studies (Gonzaga University). At the intersection of critical theory and intercultural studies, his research topics are (1) organizational culture and change; (2) leadership and framing for sense/meaning-making; and (3) critical interculturality and global social justice.

Jan Klakurka: Chair of Management and Organizational Studies at Huron University College, Western University and instructor at the Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. Jan's professional designations include: C. Dir., CPA, CA, APF and CMC. He is a graduate of University of Toronto, the Richard Ivey School of Business (M.B.A.), and Director's College, McMaster University. As consultant, Jan has advised C-suite leaders as principal of co-founded firm, Elevae, and previously within the strategy practice of Deloitte Consulting. Jan's research is directed toward the intersection of strategic planning, lucid foresight and governance, with recent presentations covering the future of the academy, strategic foresight, and values in governance.

Thomas Mengel, Dr. theol.: Professor of Leadership Studies at Renaissance College, University of New Brunswick, Canada. He also serves as adjunct professor at the Centre for Innovative Management of Athabasca University, Canada. The focus of his scholarly activities is leadership and project management education in the context of values, social innovation, and futures studies. Thomas also works as professional futurist (APF) and consultant (Founder and owner of ValuesXplorer Inc.). He holds graduate degrees in adult education, theology, history, and computer science; his doctoral degree is in church history from the University of Bamberg, Germany.

Thomas Meylan, Ph.D.: Astrophysicist turned information technology businessman. He has directed a research center for NASA, built a customer support call center for Verizon, and repaired many deeply troubled programs. He is also a scholar of ancient religious traditions, having received a divinity degree from a Mennonite institution. These experiences have informed his approach to the study and performance of leadership for many decades.

Tyler Mongan: President and co-founder of HA:KU Global. He works with executive leadership and organizations globally to help them develop and scale future intelligence so they can successfully navigate a complex, uncertain, and exponentially changing world. Tyler has facilitated over 100 foresight sessions in ten countries. He is also the host of the Future Intelligence Leadership Podcast. His professional focus is on developing the practical application of neuroscience-based strategic foresight and future intelligence. Tyler is a member of the Association of Professional Futurists (APF) and a 2020 APF Emerging Fellow researching arctic geopolitics with a time horizon of 2050. He has attended graduate studies in philosophy at the University of Tennessee and Naturopathic Medicine at the Southwest College of Naturopathic Medicine, Arizona. He completed his Executive MBA at Quantic school of business and technology in 2021.

Carol Nemeroff, Ph.D.: Dean and Professor at Renaissance College, University of New Brunswick, Canada. While her disciplinary training is in psychology, her research and teaching have always been interdisciplinary. Carol's primary research lies at the intersection of cognitive psychology and anthropology, focusing on intuitive, or 'heuristic-based,' thinking about contagion. A focus on gender and culture in that work led her into the domain of women and leadership. Her most recent work focuses on designing and evaluating innovative ethics training that builds real-world ethical resilience for a complex, stressful, and multicultural world. Carol holds a Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Pennsylvania.

Rauli Nykaenen: Responsible for foresight and research at Techistential (Foresight Strategy) in San Francisco. He holds an MA in philosophy from the University of the West of England where he also works on his Ph.D. focusing on Kant's critique of pure reason.

Kevin Reddy: Kevin is the Co-founder and Executive Chairman of HA:KU Global - Enabling the Next Generation of Leadership. He brings more than 25 yrs of experience as a seasoned CEO, digital strategy + innovation + transformation leader, senior advisor to venture funded startups, Fortune 500 C-suite, PE/VC portfolio leadership with Tech IB, M&A, and Digital Transformation consulting experience at leading top-tier consulting firms - Accenture, Booz & Co, and PwC. Kevin is also a global venture growth catalyst, angel investor, board member, advisor/mentor at venture backed disruptive emerging tech startups, innovation incubators, corporate accelerators, and smart digital hubs across various leading startup innovation clusters worldwide.

Roger Spitz: President of Techistential (Foresight Strategy) and founding Chairman of Disruptive Futures Institute in San Francisco. He sits on a number of advisory boards of companies, venture capital funds and academic institutions. Roger has two decades advising CEOs, founders, boards and shareholders of companies globally on Mergers & Acquisitions. He is also an advisor on Artificial Intelligence and has invested in a number of AI startups. Roger is a professional futurist (APF), Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants (ICAEW), and professional member of IEEE, of the Association for the Advancement of Artificial Intelligence (Palo Alto), and of the UK's Society for the Study of Artificial Intelligence & Simulation of Behaviour. Roger holds a Masters in Corporate and International Finance (M.Sc.) from the University of Durham, UK.

Mattia Vettorello: Innovation consultant with experience in co-designing actionable and adaptable new growth strategies. He uses an integrated methodology – strategic foresight, design thinking and system theory – to explore innovative solutions that deliver positive impact to most people and planet. The focus of his scholarly activities is innovation management, entrepreneurship and futures literacy. Mattia current research focus on enabling and integrating anticipatory thinking in complex behavioral strategies to support strategic decision-making for early-stage innovation management. Mattia holds a post graduate degree on strategy and innovation from Swinburne University of Technology, where he is completing his doctoral degree.

Shelbee Nguyen Voges, Ph.D.: Associate Professor and Director at St. Edward's University, Austin, Texas. She is particularly interested in leadership and higher education change; she holds a Ph.D. in Multi/Interdisciplinary Studies and Adult Education from the University of Texas.

Steven Walker, Ph.D.: Associate Professor at the National University (School of Professional Studies) in La Jolla, California, where he teaches leadership on the Marine and Air Force bases. He holds a Ph.D. in Leadership Studies, a Masters in Organizational Leadership, a Masters in Psychology, and a Bachelors in Business Administration. His primary interests have been in crisis leadership, leadership for sustainability, complex adaptive leadership, and leadership during economic recessions. His latest research has also included e-learning implementation and leadership during the current Covid-19 Pandemic.

Verne Wheelwright, PhD: Active member of the Association of Professional Futurists, a professional member of the World Future Society and a member of the World Future Studies Federation. His particular focus is on personal futures and recently small business and foresight. Verne holds a PhD. from Leeds Metropolitan University which he received for his ground-breaking research in the application of the methods of foresight and futures studies to individual lives.